

Client_2 OS Auth System Usecase Diagram

When the user log's into the account, the email address and password are checked against the database entry, the multifactor authentication functionality is triggered, and if completed successfully, the user is redirected to the Dashboard page which renders the league table. Current diagram assumes that staff with Client_2_hq, gym_manager, and gym_staff should view the same overview dashboard.

Other solutions can be implemented.

